Status Update/Request For Extension Of Time Reference:
Gary Thomas v. United States, 19-CV-9756(AJN) and 13-CR-360(AJN)

Dear Judge Nathan:

Recently I wrote the Court notifying the court of my status with respect to the filing of my supplemental reply to my 28 U.S.C. §2255 motion. In the recent filing I informed the court that I anticipated having my supplemental reply filed on or before January 17, 2021. Due to recent unforeseen delays in mailing I have not been given critical and necessary documents that my sister sent to me from St. Croix, Christiansted, VI on December 28, 2020. My pleading is 95% completed and the outstanding document was delivered to local prison officials on January 2, 2021 but as of to date have not been given to me. In addition, on the heels of my sister sending me this critical material, she placed another package in the mail on or about January 6, 2021 that will also accord the Court a crucial foundation to assess the merit of my supplemental position. In summation, I am asking the Court to permit me until February 10, 2021 to have my supplemental reply filed. This additional time should cover any unforeseen delays and disruption by the Postal Service and/or hopefully local prison officials, that is, in the withholding of my mail. I have attached hereto this letter the results of my recent USPS tracking inquiry.

I thank you in advance Your Honor for according me the appropriate relief in this matter.

Sincerely,

Gary Thomas, Petitioner, Pro Se

Good morning Ms. Sheldon, I'm asking that you help me to receive a envelop with Legal Documents sent from my Sister Rena M. Thomas . My sister has tracked this package last night (Tracking # 9505510349010363241661) which has shown to be delivered on 1/2/21. Can you please either call me from my job at Unicor or have it sent to the Unit in the general mail bag in the afternoon. I need it in.order to finish and met my filling to the Courts. Thank You Ms. Sheldon.
